NOTES.

Mr. W. B. Kiser is acting as stock marshal, a position he has held since the first year of the fair.

Messrs. Clay Sutherland and John Davis are assisting Secretary Chas. Webber in his office at the grounds.

W. E. Speakes & Son, of this county, have their fine show mare, Goldie Mae and her colt, Millard King, which carried off a blue tie at the Capitol Fair last week, quartered at the grounds.

Michael's Band, the musical organization that will furnish music during the Bourbon Fair, gave a concert in front of the court house Tuesday morning, and will continue to do so each morning of the fair.

Shropshire & Matlack have an excellent string of horses quartered at the grounds, among them being Teddy Roosevelt, Fairacre King, Jackstraw, Knotty Mae Etta, Hazel Dunn, Rolla, Anita, Sarah James and Billy Burke.

A familiar figure at the fair this week is "Uncle" Sam Ewalt, who is one of the ticket takers at the main entrance to the grounds. "Uncle" Sam has held this position since the re-establishment of the fair, and despite his advanced years is extremely active.

Mr. A. S. Thompson, chairman of the committee on grounds and buildings is to be congratulated upon the attractiveness of the grounds. Mr. Thompson worked unceasingly in getting the lawns and walks in shape for the fair and favored by the rains, the grounds now present a beautiful appearance.

Collins & Redmon are well represented with a string of seven horses, among the number being Col. Young, the champion saddle gelding. Col. Young was sold recently to a party in Tennessee for $1,000. Others in their stables are Floral King, and King Edward, Gadfly and Kingston, two promising colts; Harmon, a yearling, and Macbeth, a suckling colt.

The Blue Grass Traction Co. had four cars here yesterday to handle the crowd, which afforded ample transportation facilities, the crowd being exceedingly light. With an increase in the attendance the company will furnish more cars. It is expected a temporary switch will be laid at the cemetery today which will facilitate the handling of the passengers in getting them to and from the grounds every fifteen minutes.

Michael's Band, numbering fifteen men, is furnishing the music for the fair this week and is certainly a drawing card. The organization is composed of high class musicians, each one an artist, and their efforts yesterday occasioned very favorable comment. The musical selections are all up-to-date, well chosen and rendered in an excellent manner. Director Michael is treating the visitors to the fair with plenty of the delightful music and by so doing is making a good impression.

Following is the musical program to be rendered by Michael's Band today. March—National Emblem.

Characteristic—Cotton Southern Breakdown.

Overture—Poet and Peasant.

Waltz—Loveland.

Vocal Solo, selected—Miss Hamann.
